Without regional and national broadcasts like KLOVE, children, families and indivuals for that matter, in our community would be without a commonality that brings us together to do good. Even the president talks of our need to come together as a nation. Take away KLOVE and you take away the bond and the good work that giving citizens just want to do for others.